Tr.  5 10

1. { Bright scenes of glory strike my sense, And all my pas-sions cap-ture; } I live in pleasures deep and full, In swelling waves of glo-ry; And
E-ter-nal beauties round me shine, In-fu-sing war-mest rap-ture; }

C.

2. { I feast on honey, milk and wine, I drink per-pe-tual sweet-ness; } No mortal tongue can show my joys, Nor can an an-gel tell them! Ten
Mount Zion's odors through me shine, While Christ unfolds his glo-ry. }

T.  8

3. { My cap-ti-va-ted spi-rit flies Throu gh shining worlds of beau-ty; } And here I'll sing and swell the strains Of har-mo-ny de-ligh-ted, And
Dissolved in blushes, loud I cry In praises loud and migh-ty: }

B.

4. { The bliss that rolls through heaven above, Through those in glory sea-ted; } Goes through my soul in radiant flames, Con-strai-ning lou-dest prai-ses; O'er-
Which causes them loud songs to sing, Ten thousand times re-pea-ted: }

5. { Then earth and seas shall be no more, And all their glo-ry pe-rish; } My joys re-fined shall high-er shine, Mount heaven's radiant glo-ry, And
When sun and moon shall cease to shine, And stars at mid-night lan-guish. }

Tr.  15

1. feel my Savior in my soul, And groan to tell my sto-ry. And feel my Savior in my soul, And groan to tell my sto-ry.

C.

2. thousand times surpassing all Ter-res-trial worlds or em-blems. Ten thousand times surpassing all Ter-res-trial worlds or em-blems.

T.  8

3. with the millions learn the notes Of saints and Christ u-ni-ted. And with the millions learn the notes Of saints and Christ u-ni-ted.

B.

4. -whelming all my powers with joys, While all within me bla-zes, O'er-whelming all my powers with joys, While all within me bla-zes.

5. tell through one e-ter-nal day, Love's all im-mor-tal sto-ry, And tell through one e-ter-nal day, Love's all im-mor-tal sto-ry.
