A - maz - ing grace! how sweet the sound that 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and Thro' many dangers, toils and snares, I When we've been there ten thousand years, bright saved a wretch like me, I have al rea dy come; Tis shin ing as the sun We've once lost but now am found; was prec ious did that grace ap pear the grace hath brought me safe thus far and no less days to sing God's praise than blind, but now I see, hour I first be lieved grace will lead me home when we first be gun.
