

Plymouth New

Tr.
C.
T.
B.

Erect your heads, e - ter - nal gates, Un - fold to en - ter - tain The King of glo - ry; see, he comes With

The Lord for strength renowned;
all his shining train. In battle mighty,
Who is this King of glory? who?

o'er his foes And let his name resound, The Lord almighty, strong in battle, great in glory shows, The Lord almighty strong in battle ov - er all his foes. The
Who is this King of glory? who?

The tune first appears in The Waterhouse Manuscript, 1780-1781, attributed to William Billings; there it is for Tenor-Bass, though existence of a Treble part is implied. Jacob French was William Billings' student; Billings died in 1800.

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2023.
Re-barr'd to eliminate full-measure rests after measures 16 and 25.