

Free Grace

Transcribed from Ingalls' Christian Harmony, 1805.

G Major
Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

Tr. 5 10
1. The voice of free grace cries 'scape to the mountains, For Adam's lost race, Christ o - pened a fountain
T. 8
2. This fountain is wide where all may find par-don, From Jesus' side flows a plen - teous re - demp - tion:
B.
3. O! Je - sus, ride on, thy king - dom is glorious, O'er death, hell and sin, will make us vic - to - rious;
4. On Zi - on we stand, we have gained the blest shore! With harps in our hands, we will praise ev - er - more.

Tr. 15 20 25 Chorus
1. For sins and transgressions, and eve - ry pol - lu - tion. The blood it flows freely In streams of sal - va - tion. Hal - le -
T. 8
2. Though sins they are rai - sed as high as a mountain, The blood it will cleanse you, that flows from this fountain. Hal - le -
B.
3. Thy name shall be prais'd in the great con - gre - ga - tion, And saints shall rejoice in a - scri - bing sal - va - tion. Hal - le -
4. We view the blest fields on the bank of the ri - ver, And sing Hal - le - lu - jahs for ev - er and ev - er.

Tr. 30 35 40
-lu - jah to the Lamb, who purchased our pardon, We'll praise him a - gain When we pass o - ver Jor - dan.
T. 8
-lu - jah to the Lamb, who purchased our pardon, We'll praise him a - gain When we pass o - ver Jor - dan.
B.
-lu - jah to the Lamb, who purchased our pardon, We'll praise him a - gain When we pass o - ver Jor - dan.