

Of all the birds that I have heard

John Mundy
(c. 1555-1630)

Soprano
Of all the birds that I have heard, that I have heard, The night-in-gale doth

Alto
Of all the birds that I have heard, have

Tenor
8 Of all the birds that I heard, The

S
bear the bell, the night-in-gale doth bear the bell, 10

A
heard, The night-in-gale doth bear the bell, the night-in-gale doth

T
8 night-in gale doth bear the bell, the night-in-gale doth bear the

S
Whose pret-ty, pret-ty tunes, pret - ty tunes,

A
bear the bell, whose pret-ty, pret-ty tunes, whose pret-ty, pret-ty

T
8 bell, whose pret-ty, pret-ty tunes, whose

S
15 whose pret-ty, pret-ty tunes, whose pret - ty tunes All oth - er birds ex - cel, all tunes, whose pret-ty, pret-ty sweet pleas-ing tunes All

A

T
8 pret-ty, pret-ty fine sweet plea- sing tunes All oth - er birds doth

20

S oth-er birds doth far ex-cel, But if such voi - ces were not dear, were not

A oth-er birds doth far ex-cel, but if such voi-ces were not dear,

T 8 far ex - cel, ex-cel, But if such voi - ces were not dear,

25

S dear, I would my mis-tress sung so clear, I

A I would my mis-tress sung so clear, I would my mis-tress sung so

T 8 I would my mis-tress sung so clear, I would my mis-tress sung so

S would my mis-tress sung so clear, I would my mis-tress sung so

A clear, so clear, I would my mis-tress sung so clear, so clear,

T 8 clear, so clear, I would my mis-tress sung so clear,

30

S clear, I would my mis-tress sung so clear, so clear, so clear.

A I would my mis-tress sung so clear.

T 8 I would my mis-tress sung so clear.