Time stands still with gazing on her face, stand still and gaze for minutes, hours, and years, to her give place: All other things shall change, but she remains the same, till heavens changed have their course and time hath lost his name.

Cupid doth hover up and down blinded with her fair eyes,
Time stands still with gazing on her face, stand still and gaze for minutes, hours and years, to her give place:
All other things shall change, but she remains the same, till heavens changed have their course & time hath lost his name.
Cupid doth hover up and down blinded with her faire eyes,
and fortune captive at her feet contem’d and conquered lies.

When fortune, love, and time attend on
Her with my fortunes, love, and time, I honour will alone,
If bloodless envy say, duty hath no desert.
Duty replies that envy knowes her selfe his faithfull heart,
My setled vowes and spotlesse faith no fortune can remove,
Courage shall shew my inward faith, and faith shall trie my love.
