

Spiritual Springtime

1. Like the ac - tion of the ground, on its ax - is turns around, 'Neath the
2. Win - ter - time when earth is bare, life - less, drea - ry everywhere, Winds are
3. When the sun has crossed the line, and the earth has left behind Ice and
4. When the earth has turned a - round, and the sun has warmed the ground, Then the
5. Have you seen the pret - ty flow'rs, bless'd with evening dew and showers? Fragrant
6. Earth in sum - mer - time pro - duce fruit for eve - ry creature's use, Not a

1. sun of mighty power, life and light; _____ So a wretched sinner whom, when he
2. high and all a - bout is hard and cold; _____ So a life that's full of sin, where no
3. snow and stormy winter raging high; _____ It is like a weary soul, turn - ing
4. ice will melt and swollen rivers flow; _____ So when he has found the Lord and re -
5. language happy fields and woods employ; _____ Do you won - der at a soul, when the
6. bit is ov - er - kept for selfish greed; _____ So a soul that's saved indeed grows his

1. sees his awful doom, Turns from sin and seeks to know and do the right. _____
2. light has entered in, And the peace of God has nev - er filled the soul. _____
3. from the world so cold, To the bo - som of the Lord, a ransomed child. _____
4. - ceiv'd His gracious word, All the filth - i - ness of sin will have to go. _____
5. Lord has made him whole, If he shouts when he is filled with heaven's joy? _____
6. fruit from righteous seed, Not for self but all is for a - no - ther's need. _____

Chorus

9

Has the sun crossed the line, do you know? _____ Has he melted all the ice and the snow? _____ Have the birds begun to sing, do you feel the joy of spring? Has the sun crossed the line, do you know? _____

13

16