

The Lord to thy request attend

John Valentine

Text: Tate/Brady, on Ps. 20

Psalm XX. N.V.

This edition by Edmund Goch
released into the public domain
March 2015.

The musical score is arranged in five systems. Each system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The vocal line is in 3/4 time and features a melody with various note values and rests. The bass line provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line of each system. The lyrics are: 'The Lord to thy re-quest at-tend, And hear thee in dis-tress; The To aid thee from on high re-pair, And strength from Si-on give; Re-To com-pass thy own heart's de-sire, Thy coun-sels still di-rect; Make Our hopes are fix'd, that now the Lord Our sov-'reign will de-fend; From'.

Notes:

The alto part is printed in the alto clef in the source.

Only the first verse of the text is given in the source: three other verses have been selected and underlaid editorially here.

The two treble-range instrumental parts in the Interlude are both printed on the same treble-clef staff in the source, the first part with stems up and the second with stems down: they have here been split out onto separate staves.
