

Isaac Watts, 1709
(Psalm 48) 66. 86. (S.M.)

Coventry

Eb major
Daniel Read, 1807

The musical score consists of four staves: Treble, Counter, Tenor, and Bass. The Treble staff begins with a note followed by a dotted half note. The Counter staff follows with a note, a dotted half note, and a half note. The Tenor staff has a note, a dotted half note, and a half note. The Bass staff has a note, a dotted half note, and a half note. The lyrics begin with "1. Let stran - gers walk a - round the ci - ty where we". The music continues with four more stanzas, ending at measure 13. The lyrics for the first stanza are:

1. Let stran - gers walk a - round the ci - ty where we
2. The or - ders of Thy house, the wor - ship of Thy
3. How de - cent and how wise! How glo - rious to be -
4. The God we wor - ship now will guide us till we

Measure 7:

Tr. dwell, Com-pass and view Thine ho - ly ground, and mark the
C. court, The cheer-ful songs, the sol - emn vows, and make a
T. hold! Be - yond the pomp that charms the eyes, and rites a -
B. die, Will be our God while here be - low, and ours a -

Measure 13:

Tr. buil - ding well.
C. fair re - port.
T. dor ned with gold.
B. bo ve the sky.