- 2) The heathen folk were forced then this to confesse,
How that the Lord for them also great things had done:
- 3) But much more wee, and therefore can confesse no lesse,
Wherefote to joy wee have good cause as wee begun.
- 4) O Lord goe forth, thou canst our bondage end:
As to deserts che flowing rivers send.
- 5) Full true it is, that they which sow in tears in deed,
A tyme will come, when they shall reape with mirth and joy;
- 6) They went and wept, in beating of their precious feed,
For that their foes full often times dyd them annoy.
- 7) But their returne with joy they shall sure sae:
Theit sheaves home bring, and not impared bee.
