Of Man and Wife

Edition for high voices (SS or TT) and basso continuo

Text: Richard Edes (1554–1604)

Music: Christoph Dalitz (1990)

1. No love to love of man and wife. No hope to hope of con-stant heart.

No joy to joy in wed-ded life. No faith to faith in ei-ther

Flesh is of flesh and bone of bone when deeds and part. Flesh is of flesh and bone of bone when deeds words and thoughts are one. Flesh is of — and words and thoughts are one. Flesh is of flesh and flesh and bone of bone when deeds and words and thoughts are one.

bone of bone when deeds and words and thoughts are one.

2. No hate to hate of man and wife.
 No fear to fear of double heart.
 No death to discontented life.
 No grief to grief when friends depart.
 !: They tear the flesh and break the bone
 That in word or thought alone. :!

3. Thy friend an other firend may be,
 But other self is not the same.
 Thy wife the selfsame is with thee
 In body, mind, in goods, and name.
 !: No thine, no mine, may other call
 Now all is one and one is all. :!
