Videns Dóminus flentes soróres Lázari
 ad monuméntum, lacrimátus est coram Judéis,
 et clamábat: Lázare, veni foras:
 et pródiit ligátus mánibus et pédibus,
 qui fúerat quatríduánus mórtuus.

*The Lord, seeing the sisters of Lazarus crying
 at the tomb, wept in the presence of the Jews,
 and he shouted: "Lazarus, come forth".
 And out he came, hands and feet bound,
 he who had been dead for four days.*

John 11:33, 35, 43, 44 & 39

(Communion Antiphon for Friday after the Fourth Sunday of Lent)

Editorial Notes:

This edition is set one tone higher than the original. Editorial accidentals are indicated above the note. Original note values are retained: thus, consistent with 16th-century convention, the C mensuration sign and its modern-equivalent C time signature signify a semibreve tactus. Bar lines are added only to aid reading and direction: 'strong' and 'weak' beats implied by their position should never take precedence over phrasing or word stress. Ligatures and coloration in the source are acknowledged with overarching square brackets and open 'corner' brackets respectively. Word underlay reflects editorial judgment and has been freely adjusted: editorial addition or reiteration of words not explicit in the source is indicated in italic.
