

H. M. Chester

Come, let us all with one accord

Holy Day
Horatio W. Parker

S
A

1. Come, let us all with one accord A -
 2. On this the day that God hath blest, The
 3. That saw pri - mev - al dark - ness break, And
 4. That saw hell's le - gion's pros - trate fall And
 5. This day the peace that flows from heav'n Was
 6. This day the Ho - ly Spi - rits flame Up -
 7. Still on this day with trum - pet sound The
 8. Then on this day let us a - dore Our
 9. Through Christ's dear grace our souls may rest In dore and mag - ni - fy the Lord, And day of peace and heav'n - ly rest, The that more glor - ious life a - wake That Christ tri - umph - ant ov - er all, His un - to the a - pos - tles giv'n, When on the church - es teach - ers came, And Gos - pel notes are ring - ing round, To God, and sup - pli - ca - tion pour, That peace and joy, for ev - er blest, Till 5

T
B

3

fes - tive ser - vice pay.
 Lord's own ho - ly day.
 last - eth ev - er - more;
 own to heav'n re - store.
 doors were closed at night.
 fill'd their souls with light.
 call the world to pray.
 when worlds pass a - way,
 the great Judge - ment day.

A - men.