

God of might, we sing thy praise

W. J. Barry (unknown)

Ignaz Franz (1719 - 1790)
Harm. B. H. F. Hellebusch (1825 - 1885)

Soprano
Alto

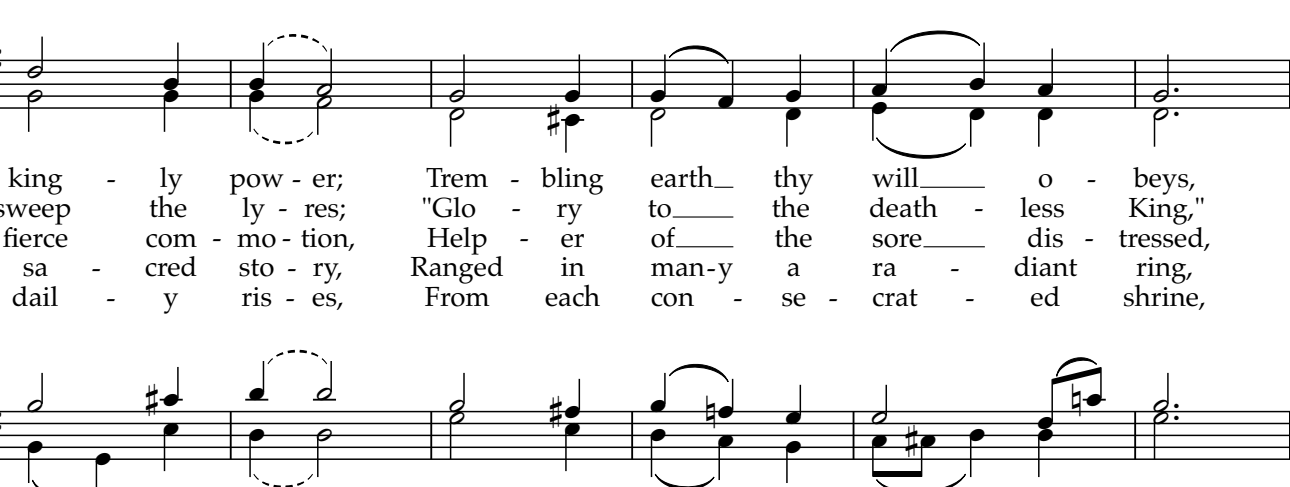

1. God of might! we sing Thy praise, Lord, we own thy
2. An - gel arm - ies ev - er sing, Che - rub fin - gers
3. Ho - ly in thy end - less rest, Rul - ing bat - tle's
4. Great A - post - les of the King, Pro - phets famed in
5. Fa - ther! to Thy name di - vine, Sa - cred in - cense

Tenor
Bass

7

S.
A.

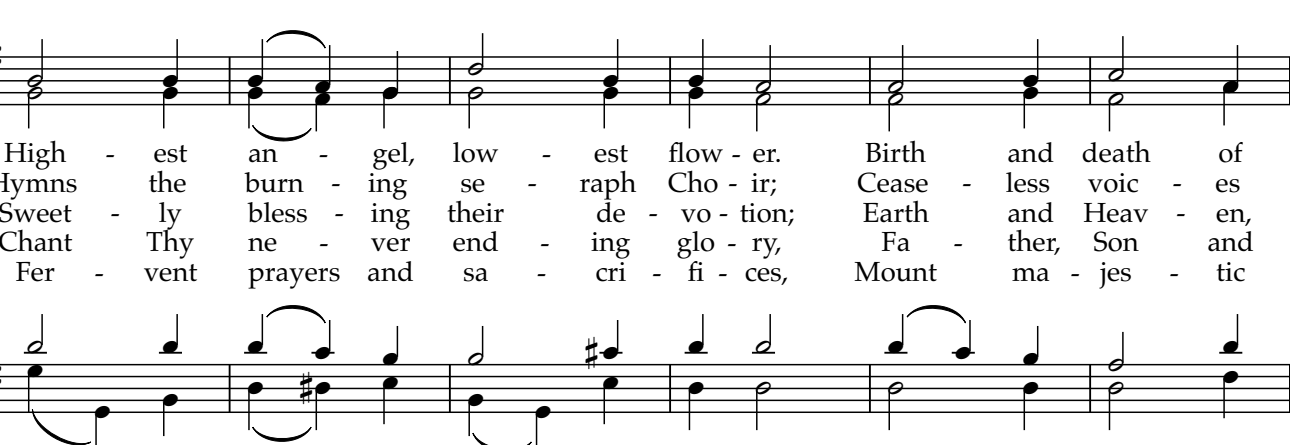

king - ly pow - er; Trem - bling earth thy will o - beys, sweep the ly - res; "Glo - ry to the death - less King," fierce com - mo - tion, Help - er of the sore dis - tressed, sa - cred sto - ry, Ranged in man - y a ra - diant ring, dail - y ris - es, From each con - se - crat - ed shrine,

T.
B.

13

S.
A.

High - est an - gel, low - est flow - er. Birth and death of Hymns the burn - ing se - raph Cho - ir; Cease - less voic - es
Sweet - ly bless - ing their de - vo - tion; Earth and Heav - en, Chant Thy ne - ver end - ing glo - ry, Fa - ther, Son and Fer - vent prayers and sa - cri - fi - ces, Mount ma - jes - tic

T.
B.

19

S.
A.

fleet - ing time, Lim - it not Thy Life sub - lime.
 say a - gain, "Ho - ly God! for - ev - er reign."
 sky and sea, All be - long, O God! to Thee.
 Ho - ly Ghost, Theme of all the Mar - tyr host.
 to Thy Son, God with Thee, in Es - sence One.

T.
B.