Evening song
(Abendlied)

John Oxenford (trans.)
(1812-77)

Robert Schumann
(1810-56)

Now hill and dale are wrapped in si-lence deep,___

The wea-ry world___ is sink-ing fast to sleep,___

And through the bran-ches rus-tle The eve-ning breeze,___ the eve-ning breeze,

S: p My heart, may'st thou rest now, with all thy f grief, p with all thy grief,

A: p My heart, may'st thou rest now, with all thy f grief, p with all thy grief,

T: p My heart, may'st thou rest now, with all thy f grief, p with all thy grief,

B: p My heart, may'st thou rest now, with all thy f grief, p with all thy grief,

S: p Heart, rest al-so thou, rest thee now, In slum - ber find re-lief,

A: p Heart, rest al-so thou, rest thee now, In slum-ber find re - lief,

T: p Heart, rest al-so thou, rest thee now, In slum-ber find re - lief,

B: p Heart, rest al-so thou, rest thee now, In slum-ber find re - lief,

Lyrics under the staves:

The eve-ning breeze_ thro' the trees sings lul - la - by, The_

The eve-ning breeze thro' the trees sings lul - la - by,_____ The_

The eve-ning breeze thro' the trees sings lul - la - by,_____ The_

The eve-ning breeze thro' the trees sings lul - la - by, The_ day would slum-ber now, slum - ber now,____ slum-ber now,_ pp Rest al-_ so thou.

day would slum-ber now, slum-__ ber now,_____ pp Rest_ al - so thou.

day would slum-ber now, slum - ber now,_ slum-ber now, pp Rest_ al - so thou.

day would slum - ber now, slum-ber now, pp Rest al - so thou.