Mary at the Tomb

Michael J. Oczko

An Easter Carol
for June in May

Copyright © 2008 Michael J. Oczko
All Rights Reserved

Largo

Voice

Piano

I am the Re-sur-rec-tion and the Life!

He who be-lieves in Me shall ne-ver die!

We walked to-ge-ther to the Tomb, the sun rose up be-fore us.
Je-ru-sa-lem's lofty spires and domes flashed with gold, the Tem-ple walls a-wash in pink and vi-o-let. But we felt no joy, our hearts were hea-vy and confused. Could this be Him? His bro-ken bloo-died bo-dy cold and dead? Was this the King of Is-ra-el? Could this be Him?

Bat tered, bea-ten, spat u-pon? Was this the Son of God? Could this be Him? Crown’d with thorns and cru-ci-fied? Could this be Him? We wept and wailed. We’d wai-ted cen-tu ries and this was our Mes si-ah?

Andante non troppo

We reached the Tomb, the stone was cast a-
There sat a man in robes as white as snow, and when he spoke, his voice rang out like bells: "He is not here, He is risen from the dead, He has gone before you to Galilee." Then I remembered Jesus' word, His promise to His people: "I am the Resurrection and the Life, He who believes in me shall never die. Death has lost its awful power now, the grave lies empty in defeat." Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah! Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Hal le- lu - ia, hal le - lu - ia, hal le - lu - ia, hal le - lu - ia!

I am the Re - sur-rection and the Life!