1. What beauties divine In Jesus do shine And yet all I see, I with boldness call mine. With Him crucified, When Jesus he died, My nature was purged, and to God purified.

2. To me it is plain When Jesus was slain; Eternal redemption He then did obtain. From bondage and chains, From sin and Hell-pains, Redemption of all in one Man he obtains.

3. For all of the Lamb I rightfully claim, To rest in His fullness of stature I aim. The Father makes known What he hath bestown On Christ, and instructs me to call it my own.
