Tr. ⁵ ¹⁰

1. Though troubles assail And dangers affright, Though friends should all fail And foes all unite; Yet one thing secures us, Whatever betide, The scrip-ture as-
2. The birds without barn Or storehouse are fed, From them let us learn To trust for our bread: His saints, what is fitting, Shall ne'er he denied, So long as 'tis

C.

3. We may, like the ships, By tempest be tossed On pe-ri-ous deeps, But cannot be lost. Though Sa-tan en-ra-ges The wind and the tide, The pro-mise en-
4. His call we o-bey Like A-bram of old, Not knowing our way, But faith makes us bold; For though we are strangers We have a good Guide, And trust in all

T.

5. When Sa-tan ap-pears To stop up our path, And fill us with fears, We tri-umph by faith; He can-not take from us, Though oft he has tried, This heart-cheering
6. He tells us we're weak, Our hope is in vain, The good that we seek We ne'er shall ob-tain, But when such suggestions Our spirits have plied, This ans-wers all

B.

7. No strength of our own, Or goodness we claim, Yet since we have known The Savior's great name; In this our strong tower For safety we hide, The Lord is our
8. When life sinks a-pace And death is in view, This word of his grace Shall comfort us through: No fearing or doubting With Christ on our side, We hope to die
