

Line 1 by Niccolò Machiavelli, 1513
Remainder by Solomon Howe, 1804
87. 87.

Judea

Transcribed from The Farmer's Evening Entertainment, 1804. A Major Solomon Howe, 1804

Tr. 5 10 15

1. Virtue is for - ev - er growing On its ba - sis, joy and love; Generous works forever flowing Like the saints who reign above.

C.

2. God, the source of eve - ry virtue, Bids us i - mi - tate his Son; That we may ascend to glory, There adore him on his throne.

T. 8

3. Sing his merits most sublimely, Ran - so - mer from hell and death; To his praise we'll be devoted, Thus em - ploy our flee - ting breath.

B.