

FAITH

For Peter Thayer

Text by Leon Ross Smith

Setting by Ross Anderson Smith

$\text{♩} = 108$

When we can - not see it right. When the

When we can - not see it right. When the

When we can - not see it right. When the

When we can - not see it right. When the

For rehearsal only

6

best that is, is be - yond our sight, we de - fy our best that is, is be - yond our sight, we de - fy our

best that is, is be - yond our sight, we de - fy our

best that is, is be - yond our sight, we de - fy our

11 a little faster blind - ness by crawl - ing toward the light. We feel the blind - ness by crawl - ing toward the light. We feel the blind - ness by crawl - ing toward the light. We feel the blind - ness by crawl - ing toward the light. We feel the

15

warmth of some-thing, some-thing be - yond our vi-sion, and trust the warmth of some-thing, some-thing be - yond our vi-sion, and trust the warmth of some-thing, some-thing be - yond our vi-sion, and trust the warmth of some-thing, some-thing be - yond our vi-sion, and trust the

20

jour - ney, made with halt and in - de - ci - sion, will

pp jour - ney, made with halt and in - de - ci - sion, will

pp

jour - ney, made with halt and in - de - ci - sion, will

pp

jour - ney, made with halt and in - de - ci - sion, will

pp

23

lead to a door where blind - ness falls a - way.

pp

lead to a door where blind - ness falls a - way.

pp

lead to a door where blind - ness falls a - way.

pp

lead to a door where blind - ness falls a - way.

pp

27

Where dark - ness melts be - fore the in - ner ray of what is

Where dark - ness melts be - fore the in - ner ray of what is

Where dark - ness melts be - fore the in - ner ray of what is

Where dark - ness melts be - fore the in - ner ray of what is

31

felt, and what is sensed is seen.

felt, and what is sensed is seen.

felt, and what is sensed is seen.

felt, and what is sensed is seen.