

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22 (melody of the Znamen tradition)

Paul Stetsenko, 2003

Very slow

pppp As the peo - ple were in ex - pec - ta - tions, and all men ques - tioned in their hearts con - cern - ing John, wheth - er per - haps he were the Christ, John an - swered them all:

Organ pppp

an - swered then all, "I bap -

"I bap - tize you with wa - ter, with "I bap - tize you with tize you with wa - ter; but he who is mf

wa - - - - - ter..." the thong of whose wa - - - - - ter." the thong of whose might - i - er than I is com - - - - - ing."

p san - dals I am not wor - thy to un - tie; He will bap - tize you with the Ho - ly Spir - it and with fire."

mf Now when all the peo - ple were bap - tized, and when Je - sus had been bap - tized and was pray - ing, f the heav - en was o - pened, and the Ho - ly Spir - it de - scend - ed up - on Him as a dove, and a voice, and a voice — came — from — heav - en, p cresc.

"Thou art my be - lov - ed

p cresc.

"Thou art my be - lov - ed Son; with thee I am well pleased,

p

Son; with thee I am well pleased;

f cresc.

well pleased. Thou art my be - lov - ed Son; with

f cresc.

Thou art my be - lov - ed Son; with thee I am well pleased. Thou art ff thee I am well pleased, well pleased."

ff ritardando

p dolce poco a poco ritardando my be - lov - ed Son; with thee I am well

p p poco a poco ritardando

ppp pppp

pleased; with thee I am well pleased."

ppp pppp

December 30, 2000