

Henry Playford, 1707
(Emend. Arthur Bedford, 1733) 86. 86. (C. M.)

Consolation

No Copyright. Transcribed from The Singing Master's Assistant, 1778.

E♭ Major
William Billings, 1778

1. He's come, let eve - ry knee be bent, All hearts new joys re -
2. What great - er gift, what great - er love, Could God on man be -
3. Hail, bles - sed Spir - it! May each soul Thy sac - red in - fluence
4. Thou to the con - science dost con - vey Those checks which we should sume; Let na - tions sing with one con - sent The stow? An - gels for this re - joice a - bove, Let feel; Do Thou each sin - ful thought con - trol, And know; Thy mo - tions point to us the way, Thou

Com - fort - er is come the Com - fort - er is come.
man re - joice be - low, Let man re - joice be - low!
fix our waver - ing zeal, and fix our waver - ing zeal.
giv'st us strength to go, Thou giv'st us strength to go.