

Indian's Farewell

Anonymous author,
first published 1808

77. 77. 77.

Transcribed from Southern Harmony, 1835;
and from Christian Harmony, 1867.

E minor

William Walker, 1835
Counter by Swan, 1867

Tr. 1. When shall we all meet again?
Oft shall glowing hope aspire,
Oft shall death and sorrow reign,
When shall we all meet again?
Oft shall wearied love retire,
Ere we all shall meet again.

C. 2. Though in distant lands we sigh,
Parched beneath a hostile sky,
Though the deep between us rolls,
And in fancy's wide domain,
Friendship shall unite our souls;
Oft shall we all meet again.

T. 3. When our burnished locks are gray,
Thinned by many a toil-spent day,
When around the youthful pine
Long may the loved bower remain,
Moss shall creep and ivy twine:
Ere we all shall meet again.

B. 4. When the dreams of life are fled.
When its wasted lamps are dead,
When in cold oblivion's shade,
Where immortal spirits reign,
Beauty, fame and wealth are laid,
There may we all meet again.

5 10 1. 2.