

Attributed to John Peck
86. 86. D (C.M.D.)

West-Sudbury

Transcribed from The Continental Harmony, 1794.

F# minor
William Billings, 1794

Tr. C. T. B.

Here is a song that doth belong To the whole human race. Concerning death, who steals the breath, And blasts the comely face. Come listen all un - to the call, which

And pass from hence a - way. Come

I do make to - day, For you must die, as well as I, And pass from hence a - way, and pass from hence a - way. Come

And pass from hence a - way, and pass from hence a - way. Come

And pass from hence a - way, and pass from hence a - way. Come

1. 2.