

Adapted from Philip Doddridge, 1755
by William Bentley, 1788
10 10. 11 11.

Stone Chapel

No copyright. Transcribed from Plain Psalmody, 1800.

C Major
Oliver Holden, 1800

Treble

1. O praise ye the Lord, pre - pare a new song; And let all His saints in
2. Let praise to the Lord, who made us as - cend, Let each grate-ful heart be

Counter

Tenor

3. Be joy - ful, ye saints, sus - tained by His might, And let your glad songs a -
4. O praise ye the Lord, pre - pare a glad song, And let all His saints in

Bass

Tr.

C.

10

full con-cert join; With voi - ces u - ni - ted the an - them pro - long, And shout forth His glad in its King; For God, whom we wor - ship, our songs will at - tend, And view with com -

T.

wake with each morn, For those who o - bey Him are still His de - light; His hand with sal - full cho - rus join; With voi - ces u - ni - ted the an - them pro - long, And show forth His

B.

Tr.

C.

15

20

hon - ors in mu - sic di - vine, And shout forth His ho - nors in mu - sic di - vine.
pla - cence the off - 'ring we bring, And view with com - pla - cence the off - 'ring we bring.

T.

va - tion the meek will a - dorn, His hand with sal - va - tion the meek will a - dorn.
prai - ses with mu - sic di - vine, And show forth His prai - ses with mu - sic di - vine.

B.