

Florence

Tr. 1. Im - mense com - pas - sion reigns In our Im - ma - nuel's heart, When T. 2. In Je - sus we be - hold His Fa - ther's glo - rious face, Shi - B. 3. At length the Lord the Judge His aw - ful throne a - scends, And
4. But when for works of peace The great Re - dee - mer comes, What

Tr. he de - scends to act A me - di - a - tor's part: He is a friend and
T. ning for - ev - er bright, With mild and love - ly rays; Th'e - ter - nal God's e -
B. drives the re - bels far From fa - vo - rites and friends: Then shall the saints com - gen - tle cha - rac - ters, What ti - tles he as - sumes! Light of the world, and

Tr. bro - ther too; Di - vine - ly kind, di - vine - ly true. Di - T. ter - nal Son In - he - rits and par - takes the throne, In -
B. plete - ly prove The heights and depths of all his love, The life of men; Nor will he bear those names in vain, Nor

Tr. vine - ly kind, di - vine - ly true.
T. he - rits and par - takes the throne.
B. heights and depths of all his love.
will he bear those names in vain.