

James Relly, 1758
(Hymn 69, Part 1) 88. 88. 88.

Sinai

No copyright. Transcribed from The Suffolk Harmony, 1786.

D minor
William Billings, 1786

Treble
1. All you who make the law your choice, At - tend and hear its dreadful voice: The voice of words, on Sin - ai heard, That

Counter
12. But if the gospel sound you'll choose, Nor Him that speaks from heaven refuse, Prepare to hear the tid - ings good, Pro -

Tenor
28. Live! Lo, He gives His all to thee: Live now from condemnation free; Live, since thou hast in Jes - us died; Live,

Bass
30. Hail, Savior of the bo - dy, hail! O'er all our foes didst Thou prevail; For - ev - er wear the glor - ious wreath Of

Tr.
1. voice which Is - rael great - ly feared. So feared as humbly to implore That they might hear its sound no more. So

C.
12.- claimed to man by Jes - us' blood; Ad - min - is - tered with glory, more Than Si - nai's law which went be - fore. Ad -

T.
28. justice now is sat - is fied: For - ev - er live, He lives again; To all He is, urge still thy claim. For -

B.
30. victory ov - er Hell and death: We see, with joy di - vine - ly sweet, All conquered at Thy bleed - ing feet. We