

Henry Playford, 1707
(Emend. Arthur Bedford, 1733)
86. 86. (C. M.)

Consolation

No Copyright. Transcribed from The Singing Master's Assistant, 1778.

E^b Major
William Billings, 1778

1. He's come, let eve - ry knee be bent, All hearts new joys re - sume; Let na - tions sing with
2. What great - er gift, what great - er love, Could God on man be - stow? An - gels for this re -
3. Hail, bles - sed Spir - it! May each soul Thy sac - red in - fluence feel; Do Thou each sin - ful
4. Thou to the conscience dost convey Those checks which we should know; Thy motions point to

1. one con - sent, The Com - fort - er is come, The Com - fort - er is come.
2. - joice a - bove, Let man re - joice be - low, Let man re - joice be - low.
3. thought con - trol, and fix our waver - ing zeal, And fix our waver - ing zeal.
4. us the way Thou giv'st us strength to go, Thou giv'st us strength to go.